

Top 10 Reasons to Renew your NC VRMA Membership Today!

NCVRMA provides members with the best information, advocacy, education, and networking opportunities in North Carolina. Here are 10 examples of how NCVRMA outfits its members with the best tools and resources to command the marketplace:

- Membership Power – We all know that there is power in numbers, and as NCVRMA grows, so does our power. However, we are also building our strength through partnerships with like industries and grassroots activities to reach consumers.
- Powerful Advocacy - Our proactive approach to legislative and regulatory issues protects the vacation rental industry and allows your voice to be heard. Attend the annual meeting to learn more!
- Critical News & Information - Regular emails keep you in the know and you can attend partner conferences and seminars keep your tools sharp.
- Networking Opportunities – As our alliance spans the state coast to mountains, NCVRMA is a one-stop networking shop. Through annual meetings, special-interest councils, and local meetings, there are ample opportunities to mingle with your peers.
- Education - Continuing education opportunities to give you a competitive edge.
- Experienced Advisors - NCVRMA members are among the most experienced in North Carolina's vacation industry, and as a member, you'll have access to the collective knowledge, experience and ideas of the group.
- The Latest Products and Services - Industry product and service suppliers provide NCVRMA with a preview of the latest and greatest products and services available. Member discounts, new products and systems, and other special features you.
- NCVRMA Newsletter - Our newsletter keeps you filled in between conferences, letting you know of upcoming legislation, meetings and networking opportunities; stats and research that support the growth of our industry; and the latest in information relating to North Carolina and national vacation trends.
- Professional Recognition - Enhance your professional credibility and visibility as a member of North Carolina's strongest and most well-known voice in vacation rentals.

If those nine were not enough...renew your membership now so you don't miss the meeting the meeting of the year, in a location everyone loves...

The NC VRMA Annual Meeting @ Hyatt Regency, Miami, Florida

➤ Reception immediately following

Date: April 15, 2018

Time: 5pm-7pm

Where: Japengo Room of the Hyatt Regency

Held just before the start of the VRMA Eastern Conference, April 16-17, 2018, this meeting gives you an excellent opportunity to network with other North Carolina vacation rental managers, meet the board of NC VRMA, and learn what is happening in the industry and the state.

The industry is seeing many changes in North Carolina and around the country. Come hear from Cady Thomas, Senior Vice President of Government Affairs, for the NC REALTORS®. During her presentation, you will learn about the issues of importance to your industry. These are issues NC REALTORS® have been and will continue to work on for us. Come hear updates on these issues, and share issues you have operating your business:

- State Tax Updates
- Budget Appropriations for Travel & Tourism
- Property and Casualty Insurance Reform
- Economic Development Funding and Partnerships
- Beach Nourishment Funding
- National Flood Insurance Program
- Health Insurance Options

A BIG thank you to Laird Sager of RedSky Insurance, and Matt Curtis of GPS Policy Group, for sponsoring the annual meeting and reception.